A MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

You will forever remember this very special day. And deservedly so. Because today marks not only the culmination of your studies but also the point at which your future shines brighter than ever with an expanded number of opportunities that will now become available to you as a graduate of Kaplan Business School.

There's real merit in reflecting on the person you were in your first trimester in contrast with the person you became by the time you reached your final trimester with us. Your knowledge, skills, attributes, networks and English language proficiency are all stronger today which, in combination with your globally respected qualification, enhance your employability as you pursue your career here in Australia or elsewhere in this world.

Indeed, my sincere hope as you walk on stage to accept your scroll is that you feel a genuine sense of pride for having attained this important accomplishment since it represents more than just your completion of every subject. Underpinning this outcome are the countless obstacles you've overcome and the sacrifices you've needed to make to be celebrating this truly momentous occasion with your peers.

On behalf of everyone at Kaplan Business School, congratulations. We wish you a magnitude of success that exceeds your expectations in the months and years ahead. We'll always remain thankful that you selected us as your higher education provider.

PROF. JAMES ADONOPOULOS
